The Arbour release in Kingswood Estate

Discover four beautifully planned double-storey townhomes, perfectly positioned on the site of the former Kingswood Golf Course in the established heart of Dingley Village.

Across three distinct designs, each home offers between 17.84q and 19.36sq of considered living space, where open-plan living flows effortlessly to a private patio, creating the perfect setting for everyday life and relaxed entertaining. Three bedrooms and two-and-a-half bathrooms provide the flexibility modern buyers are looking for, with a master suite complete with ensuite and walk-in robe, and a separate upstairs rumpus delivering a second living zone.

Each contemporary facade sits beautifully within the Kingswood streetscape, framed by more than 800 mature trees retained from the original course. With only four homes available, this is a rare opportunity to secure your place in one of Melbourne's most established south-eastern pockets.

Ellery

Room where you need it most.

The Ellery takes an intelligent layout and puts the additional space upstairs. With 18sq of living space, an open-plan living zone opens to a private patio, served by a kitchen and a generous meals area.

Upstairs, three bedrooms are arranged for genuine separation, anchored by a master suite with generous proportions, an ensuite and a spacious robe. Two further bedrooms with robes share a full family bathroom with separate WC.

A separate rumpus, ground floor powder room and integrated garage complete a home designed across two levels for the long term.

Hemming

Every metre, considered.

The Hemming is a thoughtfully proportioned double-storey townhome designed around the way life actually flows. With 17.84sq of living space, an open-plan living zone runs into the meals area and a full-length kitchen, opening directly to a private patio.

Upstairs, three bedrooms are arranged for genuine separation, anchored by a master suite with ensuite and spacious robe. Two further bedrooms with robes share a full family bathroom with separate WC, while a dedicated laundry, ground floor powder room and integrated garage mean practicality is never an afterthought.

A separate rumpus gives the first floor a second living zone, whether that becomes the children's retreat, the study or the room where the television finally lives on its own.

Location and lifestyle

Kingswood presents a masterplanned community built around what has been kept as much as what has been created, in one of Melbourne's last significant infill opportunities in the established south-east.

At the heart of the community, more than 800 mature trees retained from the original golf course frame around ten hectares of parks, wetlands and native landscape, roughly a fifth of the developable land given back to open space, with a further 1,500 trees to be planted. Spring Road Reserve sits at the doorstep, with the Hawthorn Football Club's Kennedy Community Centre nearby and Braeside Park and its wetlands close by, giving residents genuine green space from day one.

Education is well served on every side, with Haileybury, Mentone Grammar, Mentone Girls' Grammar and Monash University's Clayton campus all within easy reach. Dingley Village Shopping Centre covers the everyday, with DFO Moorabbin, Westfield Southland and Chadstone all a short drive away.

Connectivity is a genuine strength of Kingswood's location. The Melbourne CBD is around half an hour by car, Mordialloc Beach and the bay sit to the west, and the arterial network through Centre Dandenong Road and the Mornington Peninsula Freeway puts the rest of the south-east comfortably within reach.

Coastal

Inspired by the essence of the Australian coastline, immerse yourself in relaxation with soft wood textures combined with the subtle hues of sand and white surf. Coastal provides a refreshing palette, perfectly capturing the essence of seaside living.

Eclectic

Embrace an eclectic style, with a vibrant and diverse medley of bold hues, unexpected combinations and playful contrasts. Exude an artistic and adventurous energy that celebrates individuality and creativity in your home.

Minimal

This minimal palette features pared-back colours, showcasing shades, tints, and tones of a single colour. With sleek textures and clean lines, it creates an effortless and chic look. Style this palette with similar natural colours, accentuated by hints of texture like wool, wood and stone.

Contemporary

Derived from the mid-century modern movement, a contemporary palette has evolved into a modern and timeless aesthetic. Neutral colours, complemented by touches of black and soft grey tones, along with sleek lines, create a striking statement.
